City and Suburban.

Dr. Harrison Westmoreland.—On Monday morning, we learn from Col. Tom Alexander, of the firm of Grant, Alexander & Co., Dr. Harrison Westmoreland left the camps near Vinning's station, on the State Road. On the next day he returned to camp voluntarily. Since his return he has been shackeled.

A Pleasant Party.—A pleasant party came off at Iceville. Every one enjoyed the cool breezes, the pure air and picturesque scenery. It was beyond peradventure the gayest and most sociable party of the season. Major J. W. Baum was indefatigable in his efforts to render the party comfortable. While there Major Baum exhibited a block of ice just turned out, in the centre of which was a bouquet of flowers, and a wreath surrounding the words, "Hon. J. M. Smith, Governor, with the compliments of the Atlanta Ice Manufacturing Company."

The party of yesterday will not be forgotton soon.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Editors Constitution: Please be kind enough to indulge me with a slight correction. In your issue of May 29th, you say card from "John A. Jones for Greeley." I am not for Greeley. I have no confidence in Greeley. He said before the war we had a right to secede, let us go in peace, etc., and when we seceded was most blatant in helping on the hyenas and wolves.

I am for State rights as the only life preserver of freedom. I am for the Democratic party, its unity, as the only safe support of State rights. If the Democratic party orders it, I will vote for Greeley. It will almost kill me to do so. To admire his good heart for his signing Davis' bond is folly, when he persecuted the men, women and children of ten States. To hope he will give us some of the offices is mean—despicably mean. He is at heart a savage.

Respectfully, John A. Jones.

Editors Constitution: Daniel Webster was once the choice of Mr. Stephens for President. He was exceedingly anxious to see him President, and what a President he would have made." exclaims Mr Stephens in his "constitutional view of the war."

And yet Mr. Webster thought the Government owed high and solemn duty to every citizen of the country—that "it is bound to protect him in his most important interests. That it is a government proper, operating on individuals, yeilding to them protection on the one hand, and demanding from them obedience on the other."

Mr. Greeley too wanted to see Webster President, and Mr. Greeley is now himself a candidate and strange to say, Mr. Stephens can't support him—"No, never," for the reason that Mr. Greeley has recently declared that we are under solemn constitutional obligations to maintain the equal rights of the citizens, but at the same time should aim at local self government.

Ad Referendum.

Newton County.—At a meeting of the Democratic party of Newton county yesterday, Hon. W. W. Clarke, Hon. J. L. Jones and Colonel J. G. Paine were elected delegates to the State Democratic Convention meeting here on the 26th.

The resolutions were conservative, pledging themselves to abide the action of the Baltimore Convention, and requesting that body, if there is a chance of probable success, to nominate a Democratic candidate for President.

The Clarke County Democratic Action.—The resolutions make handsome enunciations of Democratic principle, endorse Governor Smith, and thus declare as to the Presidential policy:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Georgia should maintain its organization, and put forth its platform of principles, and send proper representatives to the Baltimore Convention, to act in concert with the representatives of all the other States.

Resolved, That in our opinion it would best secure our rights to nominate candidates of our own for President and Vice President, even if, as a matter of policy, it became necessary to leave the Electoral Colleges free to decide between Grant and Greeley as a choice of evils, making the best choice for ourselves which the circumstances of the case would permit.

Resolved, That while this is our opinion, we leave our delegates free to act in their discretion for the best interests of the country.

The delegates are Emory Speer, Esq., B. H. Overby, T. A. Burke, Jas. R. Lyle.

The Athens Watchman thus comments:

Although prevented by circumstances from attending the county meeting held in this place on Saturday last, we feel perfectly safe in expressing the opinion that the resolutions adopted do not come up to the demands of a majority of our people, even if they fully express the views of a majority of those present.

Inasmuch as the delegates are very properly left to act as they think best, and the resolutions were moderate in tone, those who desired something more pronounced were content to acquiesce in them quietly, rather than provoke needless discussion if not division. This was, perhaps, the wisest course, under all the circumstances. The leading object with all the friends of free government should be to preserve the unity of the Democratic party, as through that organization we hope to see the liberties of the people restored.

As an individual, we should have preferred resolutions similar in tone and spirit to those adopted unanimously by the citizens of Richmond county, which will be found in another column.

Democratic Meeting in DeKalb.—Pursuant to the call of the Executive Committee, the Democrats of DeKalb met at Decatur, June 4th, to appoint delegates to the State Convention.

On motion of Colonel R. A. Alston, Colonel J. J. Morrison was called to the chair, and W. G. Whidby requested to act as Secretary.

Colonel T. C. Howard, in response to the invitation of the chair, explained the object of the meeting, briefly and pointedly.

Colonel R. A. Alston moved that the chair appoint a committee of seven to prepare business for the meeting, which prevailed.

The Chair appointed as the committee Colonel R. A. Alston, Colonel T. C. Howard, E. A. Davis, John Bryce, J. R. Mehaffey, J. W. Kirkpatrick and J. W. Fowler.

During the absence of the Committee in response to calls, Col. H. Clay Jones, Henry Hillyer, Hon. W. L. Goldsmith and L. J. Winn made brief and pointed remarks.

The Committee submitted the following report which, after remarks by Col. T. C. Howard, L. J. Winn, H. C. Jones and Hon. W. L. Goldsmith, were adopted without a dissenting voice:

The Democracy of DeKalb county assembled in primary convention for the purpose of considering the state of the country, do offer their most heartfelt congratulations to their party and the people throughout the State, that once again this good old Commonwealth is in the control of its own laws, its own citizens, and that no longer alien enemies, and domestic traitors plunder, afflict and disgrace our soil. It is a blessing for which God should be humbly thanked, and we do most devoutly, most reverently make our acknowledgments for the divine mercy of this deliverance. At last, after ignominious oppression, persecution of individuals not a few, insults to the civil authority without number, and plundering of our substance that have brought the name and credit of the State to the brink of disgrace, we have reclaimed the reins of government and inaugurated a new lease of power for men of honor, "who would feel a stain like a wound," and for patriots who regard official trusts as something better than opportunities to steal. We feel a lofty pride in making a challenge of comparison of the men now in power in Georgia with those just driven by the public verdict from places which they so scandalously disgraced.

This comparison will cheer the heart of every citizen, elevate the faith of every patriot who confides in moral worth in the affairs of men, and delight every one in the broad extent of the land who has not said to himself "evil be thou my good," and has not determined at any cost to sustain the wicked party that lives and riots in sectional revenges and persecutions. In contrast with the times and men which have just preceded the present, we point exultantly to the conduct of the present Executive of the State since his inauguration. He has given his days and nights to the work of reform. He has stopped all waste. He has pursued the plunderers, arrested all not too fleet of foot for human vigilance, and made many hopeless cases disgorge. We hail the day in Georgia when a Governor must be a gentleman, and an official of the State an honest man.

The outlook on national politics is almost as bright. The Radical party for years rioting in its uncontrolled license, has by its wanton cruelties inflicted on the prostrate South, by its contempt for the Constitution of the country and the shocking means it has employed to perpetuate its rule, at last disgusted the good men of its own ranks. It is now divided. Its better part revolts against its abuses and declares for honest constitutional government. It now solicits our co-operation as a party in the attempt to pluck from the deluge of corruption the drowning fortunes of the Republic. We believe from our hearts that this appeal is an honest one and means fully what it says. We believe further that it is not in the power of the Democratic party, and far less in the power of the Southern people, to make any impression upon the strength of Radicalism, entrenched as it is. General Grant and the men who surround and uphold him, can never be forced to let go their hold on official power until made to do so by the desertion of the better portion of the party that placed him in his seat. This displacement must occur soon, or all is lost. Four years more of such shameless abuse of power as have burned the history of this administration into our memories is simply death to American liberty, and is virtually an overthrow of the Government. If there is really a chance of escape it must not be trifled with. For our part we declare for a coalition with any set of men or party, which honestly labors for the restoration of good government and the rule of good men. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the administration of Governor Smith has our cordial approval. In him we find all we need and all that can be desired in a faithful and able Executive, and if he should receive the unanimous renomination of the party it would meet our full and hearty indorsement.

Resolved further, That while we will inflexibly adhere to the fortunes of the Democratic party and abide by its recommendations in convention, we, at the same time, declare in the most earnest and solemn manner that we believe it to be inexpedient for the Democracy to make a nomination for the Presidency at its approaching Convention, and we do so advise, and that we will do all in our power to secure the election of Horace Greeley and Gratz Brown, if there shall be no nomination of a Democrat by the Baltimore Convention.

On motion of W. G. Whidby, the chair appointed the following delegates to the Democratic Convention, assembling at Atlanta, on June 26th:

Hon. A. H. Colquitt, Colonel T. C. Howard, Hon. W. L. Goldsmith, L. J. Winn, John Bryce and J. C. New.

On motion of Hon. W. L. Goldsmith, Judge E. A. Davis was elected permanent President.

On motion of L. J. Winn, W. G. Whidby was elected permanent Secretary.

On motion of Hon. W. L. Goldsmith the President was requested at his leisure to appoint an Executive Committee of one from each militia district, and a chairman, and publish the same in The Atlanta Constitution.

On motion of L. J. Winn, the Secretary was instructed to publish the proceedings of this meeting in The Atlanta Constitution.

The meeting then adjourned.

E. A. Davis, President.

W. G. Whidby, Secretary.

At the putting up of the monument in Athens, Monday afternoon, a large crowd had collected around the monument which had been decorated with flowers. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Lewis, who introduced Mr. A. S. Erwin as orator of the occasion. Mr. E. commenced his oration in fine style, but in a few moments a heavy cloud came up which dispersed the crowd—none too soon, however, as one of the fiercest storms of wind, rain and lightning we have seen in many a day suddenly burst forth in great fury. The adjourned term of Clarke Superior Court began on Monday. Dr. M. S. Durham has been unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in Clarke—election on the 28th instant. During the severe storm Monday, the lightning struck the stable of Mr. N. L. Barnard and killed a horse. It struck and killed a dog chained to a tree in the yard of Mr. Martin England. It struck trees in various parts of the town. The rain fell in torrents, and was accompanied with hail. Dr. J. B. Carlton has been elected President of Clarke county Democratic Club.—Athens Watchman

The Democratic Meeting in DeKalb.

Editors Constitution: At a large assemblage of the Democrats of DeKalb on yesterday, after several happy and well-timed speeches by various gentlemen of the county, the committee appointed for the purpose, introduced a preamble so remarkable for beauty and truthfulness and resolutions in such perfect accordance with true Southern sentiment that it seems to your correspondent important that the special attention of every Democrat in the State should be called to them. I forbear to attempt criticism. An abler pen than mine would fail to give them justice. They must be read in all their fullness to be fully appreciated. And even then your readers will fail to get all the sweets of this intellectual feast, for no small part of their force and beauty was made plain by the eloquent delivery of Col. T. C. Howard, the spokesman of the committee, and the reputed author of the resolutions. After reading these resolutions, as only Col. H. can, he gave us a short extempore speech; and such a speech, would that every man in Georgia could hear that man talk when his soul is stirred in its very depths with yearnings for Georgia's welfare; would that we had more men scattered all through our land who had the zeal for the country's good and the qualifications for directing that zeal that he has.

Your "local" was on the ground, and I know, Mr. Editor, he has given you a correct and full report. I only ask in the name of the people's good that you give room for it all. It is of too much importance to be clipped. T.

☞ An Arkansas landlord thus profanely advertises his hotel in the local papers: "And Joseph wept aloud, and he said unto his brethren, 'I am Joseph, doth my father yet live?' And his brethren answered him, 'You bet; the old man is doing bully, for he boards at the Cosmopolitan.'"—Index.

Washington, June 5.—The following proclamation has been issued by the President:

Whereas, The act of Congress, approved May 22, 1872, removes all political disabilities imposed by the third section of the fourteenth article of amendments to the Constitution of the United States, from all persons whomsoever, except Senators and Representatives of the 36th and 37th Congress, and officers in the judicial, military and naval service of the United States, heads of departments, and foreign ministers of the United States; and

Whereas, It is represented to me that there are now pending in the several Circuit and District Courts of the United States, proceedings by quo warranto under the Fourteenth section of the act of Congress, approved May 31, 1870, to remove from office certain persons who are alleged to hold said offices in violation of the provisions of said article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and also penal prosecutions against such persons, under the Fifteenth section of the act of Congress aforesaid.

Now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby direct all District Attorneys having charge of such proceedings and prosecutions to dismiss and discontinue the same, except as to persons who may be embraced in the exceptions named in the act of Congress above cited.

A CHOICE RESIDENCE LOT FOR SALE.

THAT LOT AND RESIDENCE recently occupied by Hon. Jared I. Whitaker, on the corner of Washington and Jones streets, will be sold by the undersigned on private terms.

The Residence contains six rooms, conveniently arranged with ample closets. On the lot are three outhouses consisting of servants' house, store room, etc., and a convenient stable for one horse and cow.

The lot measures 115 feet on Washington and 210 feet on Jones streets.

In point of elevation, beauty of surroundings, good neighborhood, society, and proximity to the business portions of the city, it is, in my opinion, superior to any residence locality now offered for sale in this city.

THE "ATLANTIC COAST LINE" FREIGHT ROUTE,

—VIA—

WILMINGTON, COLUMBIA AND AUGUSTA,

—TO AND FROM—

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston & all Eastern Cities,

AND ALL POINTS SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST,

Over the Wilmington & Weldon and Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railways,

AND THEIR CONNECTIONS.

AN entirely new line of independent connections from Tide-water at Wilmington, N. C., and Portsmouth Va., and of unbroken gauge from Wilmington, transporting Freight, without transfer or detention, to and from all interior points.

The management of this line presents its advantages to the Southern Public upon the assurance of careful and quick transportation, uniform rates with all competing lines, the lowest current insurance, and so perfect a system of Steamship connections at Northern Ports, as to enable Bills of Lading to be signed and goods forwarded daily, by one of the other of our routes over both of which EXPRESS TRAIN TRANSPORTATION is given to Columbia, S. C., and Augusta, Ga., there connecting with Fast Freight Schedules to terminal points.

Observe the Following Excellent Schedule of Connections

VIA WILMINGTON AND STEAMSHIP LINES,

With BALTIMORE—By the Southern Steamship Co.'s Steamers, Lucille, Rebecca, Clyde, Bolivar, leaving each port every five days, Andrews & Co., Agents, 73 Smith's Wharf, Baltimore.

With PHILADELPHIA—Southern Mail Steamship Company's Steamers, Pioneer, Leaving each port every ten days, W. L. James, General Agent, 130 South 3d Street Philadelphia. Also, through Andrews & Co.'s Baltimore line with Shriver's Daily Propeller Line; without drayage in Baltimore.

With NEW YORK—Loriliard's Steamship Line of First Class Iron Steamers, Benefactor, Regulator, Volunteer, Fanita, and two additional ships now building, leaving each port every four days, H. S. Ohl, Agent, Pier 33 East River. Wilmington and Atlantic Steamship Company' Steamers, Metropolis and Equator, Leaving each port weekly, Washington & Co., Agents, 173 Greenwich street, Pier 12 North River.

The Steamships of these lines being built exclusively for freight transportion carry all classes of freight in unlimited quantities.

Via Portsmouth & Inland Air Line,

With BALTIMORE—Via Bay Line Steamers, Daily, R. L. Poor, General Agent, Union Dock, C. Fitzgerald, Contracting Agent, 154 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore.

With PHILADELPHIA—Annamessic Line, Tri-Weekly, Jno. S. Wilson, General Agent, 44 South 5th St., Philadelphia. Clyde & Company's Steamers, Semi-Weekly, Clyde & Co., Agents, 12th South De aware Avenue, Philadelphia.

With NEW YORK—Old Dominion Steamship Company's Magnificent Steamers, Wyanoke, Niagara, Isaac Bell, Saratoga, Hatteras, Old Dominion, having a capacity of 13,000 bales of Cotton per week, leaving each port Tri-Weekly all the year round, and oftener if necessity demands. Freight received daily at 303 Broadway, 187 Greenwich Street, Pier 37 North River.

With BOSTON—Via Boston and Norfolk Steamship Company's Steamers, Leaving each port Tri-Weekly, E. Sampson, General Agent, 53 Central Warf Boston.

With these perfect Steamship Connections, Freights are not exposed to the risks of weather or Drayage Transfers; Through Bills Lading are issued to all points common to competing lines. Rates, Classifications, Shipping Directions, Tags, Stencil Plates, &c., furnished on application to the undersigned or Agents named. Mark your Goods via "Portsmouth and Wilmington," or via "Steamships to Wilmington," as you may prefer, and direct Bills of Lading to be forwarded to A. POPE, General Freight Agent, at Wilmington, N. C., and they will avoid all detention. The following Southern Agents of the Line can furnish all necessary information, as well also, Agents at all Railway Stations: T. C. JAMES, Traveling Agent, Columbia, S. C., J. A. SADLER, Traveling Agent, Charlotte, N. C., T. LYONS, Local Agent, Augusta, Ga., A. C. LADD, Local Agent, Atlanta, Ga., BEN MOCK, Southern Freight and Passenger Agent, Montgomery, Ala.

☞ All claims for loss, damage and overcharge promptly investigated and settled by the undersigned.

JOB PRINTING NEATLY EXECUTED AT THE CONSTITUTION OFFICE.

The Daily Constitution

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE COUNTY.

THE LARGEST CITY, COUNTY AND STATE CIRCULATION. DEFIES REFUTATION.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1872.

TO LAWYERS.—A full report of the decisions of the Supreme Court is furnished to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively, by the Reporter of the Court.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We do not read anonymous letters and communications. The name and address of the writer are indispensable. Rejected communications we cannot undertake either to return or preserve.

☞ The crop reports from all parts of the State are favorable.

☞ Hall, Forsyth and Milton counties have held meetings and passed resolutions, we are informed, on the line of this paper.

Chattahoochee County.

The Democrats of this county declare against Greeley, and that the times call for a straight out Democratic ticket, but submits to the Baltimore Convention.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Our pamphlet copies of the Decisions of the last term of the Supreme Court are now ready and are being sent out. Send in orders at once. This will insure the receipt of the Decisions at the earliest possible moment. Pamphlets, $1 00 per copy.

Summer Travel.

Mr. Crittenden informs us that he is beginning to get letters from parties, who are getting ready for summer flight from their warm homes below to the cooler climates.

The tide of summer travel is already beginning, and we hope to see Atlanta running over with pleasant summer sojourners.

Personal.

We had a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. Peeples, editor of the Gwinnett Herald. He brought us the action of his county Democrats to be found in another column. They are on the line of THE CONSTITUTION.

Also, Col. Steadman, of Newton county; Lowrie, of Whitfield county, and Mr. Stroud, of Walton county, favored us with pleasant calls. These counties are all on the line of THE CONSTITUTION.

A Centre Shot.

The New York Tribune lets fly the following at those immaculate patriots who are so shocked on the Jeff. Davis bond question:

Till Cincinnati the bailing of Jefferson Davis after he had been for two years refused the right of the commonest felon, that to a trial, was a monstrous crime. Now the New York Renomination State Convention hastens to select one of the bondsmen (Garritt Smith) as a delegate at large to Philadelphia.

Call for Democratic Meeting in Fulton to Nominate Delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

ATLANTA, GA., June 1, 1872.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Fulton county, this day assembled, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democrats of Fulton county are hereby requested to meet in Mass Convention at the City Hall on Saturday the 15th instant, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of selecting six delegates to represent the Democratic party of Fulton county in the State Convention to be held in this city on the 26th inst.

T. W. J. HILL,
Chairman of Democratic Ex. Com.

JNO. F. EDWARDS, Secretary.

☞ The Supreme Court of Florida, on Saturday, decided that W. D. Bloxham, the Democratic and Conservative candidate for Lieutenant Governor in 1870, was legally elected. This after he has been illegally kept out of the office for nearly two years! The decision goes to the extent of declaring that Niblack, the Democratic candidate for Congressman at the same time, was also legally elected; for both Bloxham and Niblack were cheated out of positions to which the people had elected them by the knavish refusal to count the votes of certain counties that gave them majorities. The Radical Congressman then fraudulently declared to be elected still holds his seat in the House of Representatives.

Bloxam has been sworn in as Lieutenant Governor.

The Columbus Enquirer.

The Columbus Enquirer says our classification of its status was not stated strongly enough for Cincinnati. It does not prefer a Democratic nomination under existing circumstances. It adds:

We would that our faith in separate Democratic success were strong enough to allow us such a preference. But as that is not the case, we are not foolhardy enough to advise our party to rush into the fight with a superior army in an entrenched position, for the mere pleasure of getting whipped under the Democratic flag. Give us a reasonable showing of success, and we will "prefer a Democratic nomination." But really we "can't see it" now. And as to preferring Greeley to Grant in the contingency mentioned by THE CONSTITUTION, we prefer old Horace to him in any contingency whatever. And the position hereby claimed for ourselves is, we believe the position of most, if not all, of the presses classed with ours.

Trophies of the Liberal Movement.

1. Amnesty.
2. Defeat of the Senate bill extending the Ku-Klux bill and suspension of habeas corpus till the end of the next session of Congress—94 to 108.
3. Defeat of the Senate Supplemental Civil Rights (social equality) bill—113 yeas, 83 nays. Two-thirds required.
4. Pending proceedings in the courts for alleged violations of the 14th Amendment to be discontinued.
5. The withdrawal of Federal troops from the town of Warrenton, in this State, upon the demand of Governor Smith.

These achievements are clearly and directly traceable to Greeley's Liberal movement, and if he accomplishes nothing more, these trophies will redeem him.—Albany News.

A Level Head.

Let us then calmly await the action of the whole party, and not say too much, for or against the Cincinnati nominees. Discuss the chances of a Democratic victory first. If it can be won—if there is any chance of success for a Democratic ticket, we think the race should be run; if there is no prospects for such, it would be folly to nominate one. Let the Southern Democrats act in concert with the Northern Democrats. The time has not come for the South to dictate or manage the affairs of the party. We need not expect to regain at a bound the position in this regard that the South occupied before the war. Let us be content to go up gradually; but above all, let all discussions be friendly and in the end stand squarely by the decision of the Baltimore Convention. Let the Democrats be democratic and consent to be governed in this important matter by the voice of the majority.—Lumpkin Independent.

How Woman's Rights Have Worked Where Tried.

In the territory of Wyoming woman's rights has been a thing of law for two years. A writer in June's Galaxy tells how it has worked.

Wyoming is on a Western crest of the continent, and has 8,000 people, exclusive of Indians and soldiers. The most are of English descent, with some Irish and Germans. A third are women, mostly wedded. The people are educated.

The woman's rights law was passed simply to advertise the territory and draw immigrants, to get it talked about over the world.

As magistrates the women do finely. One lady showed wonderful legal acumen. The lawyers tried to fool her with a case over which she had no jurisdiction. She detected the imposture, and turned the tables on the facetious lawyers. These women magistrates did much good. They corrected the tendency to lynch law, gave the men culprits fits and erred rather to justice than mercy.

As superintendents of school instruction, they did well.

As jurors they were a success. They got up indictments that the men wouldn't touch. They raked in the offenders like cutting grain. They allowed no pleas of insanity, or suppositious self-defense to clear undoubted murderers.

At night the women were stuck in one room with women bailiffs and the men in another with men baliffs. The Sheriff kept the key of the door between. The women would pray at night and the men play poker.

Matrons with squalling babies were usually excused. Where husband and wife were both summoned one was excused. No divorces or loggerheads have resulted from female jury duty yet while law and order have been served.

As politicians the petticoats have been bully. They calmed down the pot house politicians. They voted under great deference from the men. It was a jolly cheerful sight seeing the gay crinolines hustling out to the ballot boxes, making things so cheerful and lively, and putting all the pantaloons on their politest manner.

One funny sight was when in a hot contest a United States Marshal went to the polls with a brace of colored sisters on his arms.

Fisticuffs went out of fashion. The women generally voted for talent and merit.

Some comical divisions of household were seen. In one case husband and wife were rival candidates. But no matrimonial disturbances resulted. The chignons have been for temperance.

The general result has been summed up by the writer to be decidedly favorable. Less fighting, more law, better order, less drinking, no more free love.

A good showing for the dear petticoats as law dispensers and politicians.

The Great Danger of the Democracy.

The great danger of the Democracy to-day is not the abandonment of principle by its members, but the loss of its power by the rupture of its unity.

The party is wedded to its principles. It has clung to them in good and bad repute, through war, and storm, and ruin, and crucifixion.

Thank God through all there has never been a wavering moment in its fealty to the true creed. We have never had fears on this point. In the South political salvation as well as physical existence depends on the ultimate re-establishment of the Democratic faith. Fidelity to it is self-preservation. Its support is an irrepressible instinct of self-interest. A minority section has no hope save in the rigid limitations of chartered law. This is its only safe-guard against majority caprice and despotism.

We laugh to scorn, in the light of the past and in the hot crucible of common sense any fears of Southern Democrats abandoning principle. It is simply impossible. With the last chirp, he will cry his belief in local government, habeas corpus, free elections, unbayoneted ballots, civil authority sovereign over the soldiers. To preserve these things, or to rehabilitate them, he will alike fight and diplomatize, use the force of power or the wiles of strategy, but abandon them, never!

There is no danger here. It is a want of the true faith to say it.

There is grave imminent danger in anything that destroys unity of action among the defenders of the true faith. Be it what it may, too obstinate personal will, or lack of courteous toleration, the result is the same—smash of the party and defeat of its dogmas. Not weighter in its perniciousness is treason, defection, treachery, inertness, surrender, flight, defeat. The result is identical—failure of the cause. Men must not be pig-headed They must agree as to action. The united energies must go together in a welded thunderbolt, or impotently waste in useless fragments.

The mind cannot calculate the result of disorganization. The fatal division that in 1860 put the Democracy, in the zenith of its giant power, at its enemy's feet has not stopped its terrible harvest yet. Could the obstinate disintegrators of that unfortunate day have seen the long years ahead of Democratic subjection and the unspeakable convulsion and ruin resulting, making the bloodiest visitation of national and individual woe ever chronicled, how they would have paused, and yielded to the intercession from calmer men for agreement. No man knows where a neglected or wasted chance may lead to What evils unity may prevent can only be measured by what good unity may gain.

Democratic danger to-day is broken unity; its chance, Radical discord. Brothers, let us avoid the one and aid and use the other. Let us not be guilty of the redeemless, unnameable folly and crime of splitting our united selves and unite a split enemy.

The Savannah Loan to the State.

A short time since ex-Governor Jenkins corresponded with our banks in this city, stating that Governor Smith desired to secure a loan to meet the interest on the State bonds falling due, intimating that if the banking institutions of this city could advance the sum ($200,000) it would be highly acceptable to the Executive and conducive to the credit of the Commonwealth. A favorable reply was forwarded after consultation, each bank advancing $50,000. The loan, we believe, is made until October at 7 per cent When the Legislature assembles, steps will be taken to provide for the issue of bonds to meet the necessities of the government.

Our bank officials merit the approbation of the people of the State for their liberality and public-spiritedness in assisting the Governor in maintaining the credit of Georgia, especially when interest rules so high, and the demand for money is great that the banks have use for all their available capital. Savannah Advertiser.

Who will say it is'nt easy for honest folks to run a government in the light of the above? See how the good men rally to the commonwealth in a tight. Honest administration gives confidence. People know the right will be done, and love to help the government.

What a contrast to Bullock's rule, and all other Radical rule, violating law, stealing the people's money, destroying credit, ruining prosperity, getting money from Clews at 2½ per cent. a month for thieving purposes, and leaving none for any other.

The good times are coming back upon us. Good for Smith.

A CONGRESS OF LAWYERS.—The Philadelphia Legal Gazette wants a national congress of lawyers called, to invite the bar of the world to send delegates to an international congress of lawyers, to be held in Philadelphia, of course, during the centennial celebration in 1876.

Which are the Patriotic?

With that preference for a Democratic nomination that every true Democrat feels we have, amid the general belief of Democratic inability to ruin a straight fight, and in the promised relief from central rule held out by co-operation with the Liberal Republicans, withheld our judgment as to what the Democracy should do, until we could get fuller information and see the safe way to the triumph of Democratic principles. Many are with us. Many have made up their minds that a solution of the difficulty is a Democratic nomination. Many have decided that the Cincinnati ticket must be supported. We are glad to see that the great mass of all these classes patriotically agree to stand by the general voice of the party, even though their views are not adopted.

A few, however, of our straight-out nomination friends are not content with urging their views, but seek to blacken and misrepresent those who are for Greeley. This is wrong. It can only do harm. It can only intensify the difference and create bad feeling. They hurt their own cause by this sort of course. You cannot succeed if your course is adopted by the party without the aid of those who differ with you. You cut off that aid by amouching and angering those men. You render their support of your policy impossible with self-respect, and therefore make any success out of question.

Let the questions be discussed in good temper, and with a view to friendly co-operation.

The character and number of the Democrats who advocate Greeley has simply made it criminal for any to charge them with abandoning Democratic principles and going over to the camp of the enemy. The charge is emphatically untrue. Such men must be met with argument, not denunciation. Their advocacy of any course warrants its respectability and gives it claim to honest consideration. Such men must be treated with respect and appealed to and not sought to be driven from their mistake, if mistake it be.

Let us discuss our differences in the proper spirit, and our final unity of action will be unbroken and victorious.

Against Greeley.

NEW YORK CITY, May 31.

Editors Constitution: I see from the World of yesterday that a Democratic meeting had been held in Augusta, Georgia. Judge Linton Stephens is right. Neither Grant nor Greeley will do for the Democratic party, nor for the decent white people of the Southern States. It is to be hoped when the Democratic Convention meets in Baltimore they will make a judiciary election, so as to defeat the five candidates already in the field, via, Grant, Greeley, Davis, Woodhull and Train.

There is no doubt as to who the promoters and most prominent supporter of these candidates are. Gen. Grant is the organizer of the "re-nomination party." The Greeley party—by the Tribune and Sun, and the other three—have their advocators and supporters, all inflamed by the same motive power viz self-aggrandizement, and then the Democrats are going to meet at Baltimore, and nominate some one. Who knows? We of the South can count ourselves among the Godless spectators. We can look on at the struggle among the infuriated creators in the arena below with mingled emotions of amusement and (shall I say) contempt, for we can certainly say we have no interest in the show.

It is amusing to read the Tribune; it is so patronizing and Christian-like in its expressions towards the South. Now what heroes rebel Generals become when on their knees they say, "I am a Greeley man." To me this thing is incomprehensible, for to-day no man in the United States is more responsible for the oppressed and cursed condition of the Southern people than Horace Greeley He urged the enactment of the Ku-Klux law. He has advocated all the worst phases of military reconstruction. Can the South trust such a man as this? Let his friends in Georgia (the Tribune claims that Georgia is going heart and souls for Greeley,) read the following bitter comments made by Mr Greeley on the party whose votes he is now seeking. They were no doubt his opinions "when his judgment was not deranged by his ambition to become President." "A Democratic National triumph means a restoration of power to those who deserted their seats in Congress and their places under the last Democratic President to plunge the country into the red sea of secession and rebellion. This party would have come into power with the hate, the chagrin, the mortification of ten bitter years to impel and to guide its steps. Whatever chastisement may be deserved by our national sins, we must hope that disgrace and humiliation will be spared us." Truly can it be said, Horace Greeley, through his Tribune, educated the North into its hostility against the South, and when his partisans speak of the South as being unanimous for him, I feel that it is an insult to the common sense of the Southern people. I see in the Sun of this morning a campaign song of Greeley's, called "The People's Voice," air "Marching Through Georgia." How would the Georgians who have visited New York and tendered their votes to Greeley, look singing it to the widows and orphans who were plundered in this march through Georgia by the followers of the man who screamed himself hoarse with "On to Richmond." Early impressions are very lasting. After forty years spent in reviling and hating the Southern people, I mistrust his conversion Should he ever get into the Presidential chair his old disease will break out afresh and more violently. He will do what he has urged Congress to do—confiscate even the land left us. Governor Palmer, in his speech at Decatur, Illinois, a few days ago, says: "We propose to say to the colored men, it was Greeley who, when these men, (I presume he means Grant and his party) were still thoughtless and cautious, who was teaching hostility to slavery. We propose to say to him, the time has not been long past when the possession of a copy of the New York Tribune at the South was death to its possessor. This man Greeley was teaching freedom, when his life would have been in danger if he crossed the line which separated the slave and the free States. "Come and vote for Greeley." To the men who followed Lee and Jackson, this Greeleyite offers pardon, upon condition that they shall sin no more; behave themselves like good children, do as they are told to do, vote for Horace Greeley, and they shall have peace, unity and love.

The "uprising of labor" continues. Four thousand horse shoers strike to-day. The bakers, the butchers, the French cooks, and even the clerks, are demanding that their employers close up their stores at certain hours. Where will this great ball of equality and rights stop at? This is the beginning of what the "civil rights bill" will produce. The fruit of Radicalism is to make men and women discontented with their lot in life. The great question after a few years will be, who will sow? Who will till and reap the fields? Our salvation depends upon once more getting this republic into good Democratic hands again. As I said in my letter last week, if we have to choose between the two, Gen. Grant or Greeley, General Grant is the lesser of the two evils. Greeley's policy of reconstruction has been thoroughly carried out in poor South Carolina. Georgia would have shared the same fate had it not been for a "Presidential blunder," as the Tribune called the breaking of King Bullock's reign in the State of Georgia. TALBOT.

HART COUNTY, GA., June 1, 1872.

Editors Constitution: As THE CONSTITUTION has quit reaching my address, I suppose that my time of subscription has expired, so I will enclose to you —— for its renewal. Your paper so appropriately expresses my political sentiments, that I feel very much lost without its regular numbers; so I give you and it a most hearty greeting, with a new subscription, hoping also that you may strengthen in the Democratic faith, as well as convict and convert many to the same.

Your friend and subscriber, ***

☞ It is stated that vegetation is completely destroyed all around Vesuvius by the late eruption, and vast estates are completely ruined. FROM OCCASIONAL.

The Popular Political Feeling for Greeley—The Constitution's Course Indorsed—Crop Prospects.

MACON, GEORGIA, June 4, 1872.

Editors Constitution: Some ten days travel over portions of Georgia and Alabama, including Montgomery, Opelika, Columbus, Macon and other points of note, has afforded, I think, a reasonable opportunity of forming an opinion of the feelings and sentiments of the people in reference to the candidacy of Mr. Greeley, it being the great absorbing topic of the day. No Democrat desires the success of Mr. Greeley save to defeat and break up the ring that rules in the present administration. It is not so much as to which is the best—Grant or Greeley. All concede both are bad enough for the South, but which of the two in the now existing state of affairs is more likely to bring peace and freedom to our harrassed people, to relieve them from the fear of prison houses the incarceration in dungeons to gratify the malice and meanness of the irresponsible negroes and carpet baggers that are prowling over the country in the interest of Grant and his supporters. In no instance have I heard a single man express himself other than for Greeley under the circumstances.

The great question now is, ought the Baltimore Convention to make a nomination? The sentiments of the people in the sections of country through which I have traveled are thus summed up. If by the time the Convention meets Mr. Greley can exhibit a satisfactory showing that, with the Democratic vote, he can carry New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois, there ought to be no nomination. If he cannot, a straight-out ticket should be placed before the country, with a telling address urging every Democrat to rally as one man to the support of the ticket, and if defeat follows it will be under our own banner. To unite with Greeley, and there be whipped, would be a death blow to Democracy for all time to come.

The people approve your position heartily, in waiting for further developments. Let coming events govern the action of the Baltimore Convention. If Mr. Greeley is accepted he will receive pretty much the entire vote of the South. The people say, however, it will be like taking epicac, yet they prefer it to arsenic; one can be thrown off, the other kills too dead for resurrection.

The crop prospect was never better. With two or three more seasonable rains, the yield will be larger than in years. The long faces heretofore so common among farmers have become bright and cheerful. They greet you with a jolly smile, and will tell you their cotton, corn and wheat was never better, and in future no more mortgages and leins for meat and bread will be taken in theirs. They are really happy over the prospect; who does not hope that they may realize a fullness of their expectations? It is right therefore to give the farmer every encouragement; the calling is a noble one, and upon it depends the life of the nation. Without them, we would all soon take up where the "woodbine twineth." OCCASIONAL.

THE GWINNETT COUNTY DEMOCRACY.

It Resolves for Party Unity.

In pursuance to a previous call a meeting of the Democratic party of Gwinnett county was held on Monday in Lawrenceville to appoint delegates to the State Convention.

Upon motion, Major R. D. Winn was called to the chair, and Captain W. W. Parks requested to act as Secretary.

After the object of the meeting had been stated, W. E. Simmons moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare business for the meeting.

The Chairman appointed Major Simmons, Rev. T. E. Kennerly, Major J. T. McElvaney, Colonel J. N. Glenn and F. F. Juhan.

The committee, through its chairman, reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, The State Democratic Executive Committee has called a Convention of the Democratic party of Georgia, at Atlanta, on the 26th instant, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the National Convention, which assembles at Baltimore, July 9th, therefore,

Resolved, That R D. Winn, James P Simmons, B. A. Blakey, Thomas McGuire, Tyler M. Peeples, F. F. Juhan and N. L Hutchins, be appointed delegates to represent Gwinnett county in said Convention.

Resolved, That the harmonious action of the Democratic party is essential to success, and that it is, therefore, the duty of all true men, who desire the return of peace and fraternal feelings between the two sections of our country—the preservation of the right of local State government; the supremacy of the civil law over irresponsible and despotic military rule, and the restoration of constitutional government—to stand to and abide whatever action the united wisdom of the Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, shall designate as proper to secure these ends.

Resolved, That we recognize in his Excellency, James M. Smith, an able, faithful and honest Executive, in whose hands the honor and welfare of Georgia is safe; and that his administration meets our warm and unqualified indorsement.

Which were unanimously adopted. Col. Glenn and W. E. Simmons were afterwards, on motion, added to the delegation.

It was further resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and be furnished the Gwinnett Herald for publication, and THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION and Sun be requested to copy.

The meeting then adjourned.

RICHARD D. WINN, Chairman

W. W. PARKS, Secretary.

Mr. Stephens Again.

From the Mobile Register]

Two days since, we copied dubious words from the Atlanta Sun, leaving us in doubt if Hon. A. H. Stephens—with all his emphatic refusal to support Greeley and Brown—really meant that his paper should suggest Grant as the desirable alternative. His words, as then quoted, were very plain; but we still give the benefit of a doubt to a Democrat whose whole course had apparently been the result of overwrought principle. But in the last issue of the Sun we find these words at the column head—under the caption, "The Ring of True Democratic Metal."

Let no one who is really interested in the question as to wheather it is proper for the Democratic party to support Greeley or not, under any circumstances that can be imagined, fail to read the article taken from the Washington (Georgia) Gazette, which we publish to-day.

Perhaps Mr. Stephens has the right to hold these views. We shall not dispute it at any rate. But we emphatically deny that to support Grant in preference to Greeley is practical patriotism; and we submit that advice to refuse to endorse the action of the Baltimore Convention, "under any circumstances that can be imagined," is bad advice. And, further, we believe that such counsel, coming from what source it may, has very little of "The Ring of True Democratic Metal."

ELECTION EXPENSES.—Every candidate for a seat in the British Parliament is required, after the election is over, to file in one of the departmental offices a statement of his election expenditure, as a check upon bribery. As might be expected, the amounts vary very much, being sometimes scarcely a hundred pounds, and in other cases many thousands. In a recent election in Yorkshire, the expenses of the successful candidate were officially reported at $53,615, while the unsuccessful antagonist had to pay $42,169.

HERE HE IS.—He came into our office late last night. He hummed a gentle song of joy over our head and then lit quietly upon our ear, no doubt to tell us that his arrival would be chronicled by all the papers on our exchange list, is exactly the words we used. We listened to him a moment and then raised the hand that with "mighty pen" had formed the opinions of half of Virginia, and the first mosquito of the season handed in his checks. Peace to his blown out trumpet.—Exchange.

EXTENSION OF THE SOUTHWESTERN RAILROAD.—We are informed that the Central Railroad Company has purchased the Vicksburg and Brunswick Railroad. This purchase gives to the Central the control of very important connecting lines. The road is in running order from Eufaula to Clayton in Alabama, a distance of twenty-one miles. Clayton is now the terminus of the Southwestern Railroad instead of Eufaula, the first trip to that point having been made on Sunday last. Americus Republican.

☞ One exchange says a "man's politics are sometimes made known by the paper worn in his daughter's pannier," and thereupon, another exchange wants to know how you are going to examine the paper and ascertain its politics.

"Fred," said a father to his son, "I hear that you and your wife quarrel and wrangle every day. Let me warn you against such a fatal practice." "Whoever told you that, father, was totally mistaken! My wife and I haven't spoken to one another for a month."

NEW YORK, June 5.—In the case of G. B. Lamar against Charles A. Dana for false imprisonment, while the latter was Assistant Secretary of War, Judge Woodhull refused to remove the case back from the United States Circuit Court to the State Court.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 5.—Ex-Governor Claflin, of Massachusetts, called the Republican Convention to order shortly after noon to-day, and after a brief speech in eulogy of the Republican party, called upon Rev. Alexander Reed, of Philadelphia, who delivered prayer. Ex-Mayor Morton McMichael, of Philadelphia, was then elected temporary Chairman. He made an address of thanks of the privilege of presiding even for so short a time over the Convention, and welcoming as a Philadelphian all the delegates to that city, and paying his highest tribute to Grant, saying he was honester, better and truer than any of his detractors.

John Nowlin, of New Jersey, John R. Hubbard, of West Virginia and Hiram Potter, of Florida, were elected Secretaries. Committees on credentials and permanent organization were appointed, and afterwards Thos. Settle, of North Carolina, was unanimously elected President of the Convention. Orr, of South Carolina, and Henderson, of Missouri, were his only contestants.

Settle took the chair, and offered a few brief remarks, and the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

During the day speeches were made by Morton, Logan, Gerritt, Smith, George Oglesby, John A. Gray, a colored delegate from Arkansas, and others, all of them in warm eulogy of Grant, who, it is declared, will be nominated by acclamation. There is intense excitement over the Vice-Presidency The friends of Wilson and Colfax are both working with the greatest vim in the question of a platform. It is said the diversity of opinion that exists is on the tariff.

WILMINGTON, N. C. June 5.—The Congressional Conservative Convention renominated Waddell by acclamation.

While no positive resolutions were passed for Cincinnati, Greeley and Brown were evidently paramount.

The resolutions harshly urge a change.

The following resolution is among them:

Resolved, That we congratulate the country upon the favorable prospects of the utter defeat of military despotism and official corruption in the administration of the General Government.

RICHMOND, VA., June 5.—The International Typographical Union to-day selected Montreal as the place of the next annual meeting. Boston was the principal contesting city.

A resolution was adopted condemning the practice of making religious or political sentiments qualifications or disqualifications for employment, and that subordinate Unions be requested to petition Congress for the abolition of the Government Printing Office.

Resolved, That all subordinate Unions are recommended to admit female printers to membership upon the same footing as males.

An amendment to the Constitution was proposed discountenancing the chartering of female Unions, and striking the word male. This lays over one year under the rules.

Mr. Tracy, of Chicago, spoke eloquently in regard to the action of printers throughout the world in sending relief to their brethren in Chicago after the great fire, and in their behalf returned thanks to fellow craftsmen for their generous action.

The Committee on Subordinate Unions reported in favor of adopting the resolution fixing the time of apprentices at four years. Adopted.

The Union was in secret session this evening. To-morrow they visit Petersburg.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 5.—The General Synod of the Reformed Church in America met in Brooklyn this evening. The session is likely to continue ten days. The organization was only effected to-day.

The ship Eddyston, from Charleston, with 3,000 bales of cotton, has arrived.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 5.—John Rose, a Canadian, who committed an outrage on a child, has been sentenced to twenty years imprisonment. The Judge regretted he could not sentence him to death.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., June 5.—A misplaced switch threw an engine and coal train down an embankment. Wormsley, the fireman was instantly killed.

IN MEMORIAM.

One by one the good pass away; the death of a good man is a calamity to the world.

Rev. Wm. Henry Clark was born in 1804, and departed this life May 1st, 1872.

At a meeting of Pythagoras Lodge No. 41 of F. and A. M., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, God, whose ways are ever good, and just, and right, has, in his effective Providence, visited our Lodge, and called to the Celestial Lodge above, our brother, Rev. Wm. Henry Clark.

1. Resolved, That in the person of Brother Wm Henry Clark, a good man has fallen, and while we mourn his death, cut off in the midst of useful labor, we will not forget to cherish and profit by the example he has left us in a life full of good deeds, unwavering Christian zeal and integrity, and ardent attachment to the principles of Masonry.

2. That his name shall live upon our records, and his memory in our hearts, and that we will endeavor so to live that we may have a well-grounded hope of meeting him in the Celestial Grand Lodge above, where the Supreme Architect of the universe presides; where all the soul shall experience, shall be perfect bliss, and all it shall express shall be perfect praise; and love divine shall ennoble every heart, and hallelujah exalted employ every tongue.

3. That our hearts are in deep sympathy with his deeply bereaved family, and with the church of which he was so long identified as a useful and honored minister.

4. That our Hall shall be draped in mourning and that we will wear the usual badge for thirty days.

5. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the bereaved family, and the Southern Christian Advocate for publication.

VALUABLE PROPERTY.—Colonel G. W. Adair will sell this afternoon a magnificent lot on Pryor street and a handsome lot on Whitehall street. Don't fail to attend.

BATHS.—Thompson has recently made some valuable improvements in his bathing establishment. Those desirous of enjoying the luxury of a hot or cold bath can be accommodated.

DISMISSED.—Yesterday Justices Johnson and Robinson dismissed the warrant against James Griffin charging him with an assault with intent to commit a rape on a colored girl about fourteen years old. J. T. Finley represented the defendant with marked ability.

FIRST WARD DEMOCRACY.—The Democrats of the First Ward are requested to meet at the R. E. Lee engine house to-night at 8 o'clock. Let every Democrat turn out and give his choice for Democratic principles. By order Executive Committee.

MISS KATIE PUTNAM.—It is rumored that this charming and talented little actress, who won so many hearts in our city last winter while playing here, has met with a serious accident. While out driving in a town in Illinois recently the horses attached to the carriage ran away, and threw Miss Putnam out, fracturing one of her arms in three different places. We also learn that her troupe has been disbanded, and that her intended visit to Europe has been abandoned for the present.

THE PICNIC of the Hibernian Benevolent Society comes off to day at Iceville—the proceeds to be added to the building fund of the new Catholic Church. As the weather is pleasant, Iceville a delightful place for a picnic, the object so worthy a one, and the Hibernians also so very successful in getting up the most enjoyable of picnics, we are convinced that the attendance will be large.

Call early at the barbers this morning, then hurry up your sweetheart, or wives and children and be ready for the first train.

CITY COURT.—Yesterday, W. A. Ward was found guilty of keeping open a tippling house, and sentenced to pay a fine of $50, or to work on the public works of Fulton county for four months.

Albertis Smith, colored, was found guilty of larceny from the house. Three months on Fulton county public works.

The case of W. Speer, colored, larceny from the house, was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

HOME AGAIN.—Capt. O. H. Jones returned yesterday from St. Louis. He was re-elected Vice-President of the Agricultural Congress. He was appointed a member of the Committee on Stock; Col. E. B. Whitman, of Stone Mountain, on Immigration and Labor; and Francis Fontaine on Fertilizers.

Rev A. Means, D. D., made a speech which was loudly encored.

Captain Jones invited the Congress to hold its next meeting in Atlanta. A member of Congress from Kansas and leading Western men favored accepting the invitation, stating that they desired to visit a place that was attracting so much attention. A member of the Congress stated however that all its sessions had been held in the South and suggested holding the session of 1873 in a western city. Captain Jones then withdrew in favor of Indianapolis, which was selected. Atlanta will be in for 1874.

THE W. P. SILER CASE.—This case was renewed yesterday morning, by the introduction for the defense of Charles S. Starr, who testified that he had known witness, David Harris, probably six years; that he was acquainted with his character; that he was a desperate man; that his character was bad as to desperandum, if that explains what is good or bad; from my knowledge of his character, I would not believe him on oath.

On cross examination, he states that from reports he has heard, that he is a robber, a murderer, and thief; he is not a fighting man in day time; I have no doubt he belongs to a clan of wretches, and is in their roguish business; I don't know where that clan begins or ends; I heard him say he could command eight thousand men; I don't think this is my imgaination; I think I have said the truth.

D. Campbell has known witness, Harris, three years; knows his character to be bad, and would not believe him on oath.

On cross examination, witness says he is friendly with Harris, but he is generally regarded as a dangerous man; a sort of a hidden man, revengeful spirit, etc.; generally believed that he has been implicated in robbing and beating colored people around Rutledge, and in that county; I know nothing, only what I have heard.

A. J. Royston testified much as the above witness had done, that he knew Harris to have a bad character, and that he would not believe him on oath; had known Harris about three years; he is considered a desperate man, a thief and murderer; that is what I have heard of him; never heard any one say they saw him commit any crime, but that negro over there; I myself have been on friendly terms with him; have loaned him money, which he repaid; has always acted honestly with me; I suppose he was arrested on some charge and brought here by United States authorities; I don't know of his being a Ku-Klux; I never heard of his eight thousand men.

B. H. Harden, known Harris four or five years; I know his general character to be bad, and I would not believe him on oath.

Cross-examined—Me and him had been under a little spute, but we done throwed it away and made good friends; I believe there are prosecutions against me; could not say what they are for; report is that it is for selling liquor to a drunken man; Harris is a witness against me in this case.

Are you not prosecuted for being accessory to a burglary in receiving the stolen property?

I am. I don't know if he is prosecutor against me.

Are you not prosecuted for keeping a disorderly house?

That is the report; I don't have no difficulty with no one unless it is forced on me; me and my father have sworn out a warrant against Harris, charging him with concealing stolen goods.

Thomas J. Baker—Has known Harris two years; his character is bad, and I would not believe him in a court of justice; most of the citizens in Rutledge say his character is bad; he has been accused of beating some negroes in the neighborhood; accused of going out at night and doing what he did; he was never arrested or tried down there: I had nothing to do with this prosecution.

Augustus Studdard—I reckon I have known witness, Harris, twenty years He has a bad character It is a hard question to answer whether I would believe him on oath or not. I should hate for him to take a pop at me, if all the reports I hear of him are true.

Marcus Harden—Has known Harris five or six years. His general character is bad, and I would not believe him on oath. There is said to be an indictment against me for carrying concealed weapons, but there is nothing in it—I have not been arrested on it. It is said that Harris' brother is prosecutor. I don't know that he is a witness against me. I thought this Harris was a witness against me.

Thomas Rutledge has known Harris three years. I know his general character to be bad, and am sorry to say I could not believe him on oath, judging from statements I have heard made against him; he is charged with being a robber; he is charged with robbing Frank Hemphill, that is the one prosecuting before United States Court. I heard he robbed Albert Walker, a freedman. I did not aid in the escape of two others who were charged with the same offense that Harris is; I told Crittenden that the Yankees were there; he was in the cab car and he jumped out and left; I never said I was as guilty as Harris was about the robbery; I knew nothing about it till Harris told me.

W. F. Streeter testified to Harris' character, but was not prepared to say that he would not believe him on oath.

R. J. Cowart, Amos Fox, W. B. Cox, S. P. Wells, W. M. Lowry, S. R. Hoyle, B. F. Wyly, G. W. Jack, W. P. Chisholm, B. H. Hill, Jr., A. S. Talley and C. A. Collier testified to the good moral character of Siler, having known him from two to six years.

J. Dilsey Collins testified to conversation he heard between witness, Ben Wilson, and Siler in the court house. Siler asked Ben if he didn't tell him (Siler) that he had sworn before the grand jury that he (Siler) had handed but one package in at the jail door. Ben answered no. Ben said that he had sworn that Siler had handed one package in in which there was nothing; that the second package he handed in to Fry; that Fry and Siler went behind the door and took out the key from the package; Siler called witness Collins up to hear what witness Wilson said. Witness listened particularly; can't give exact language.

W. K. Booth testified to a conversation had between Siler and the witness, Ben Wilson, near Booth's shop on Peters street Siler first inquired if Ben. Wilson worked for me. Told him no, but there was another shop near by. Siler returned saying that Wilson worked at blacksmith shop, and asked witness to go with him there. Siler called Wilson out and said: "I understand you have been a witness before the Grand Jury, and that it is on your testimony that they found a true bill against me; that he understood that Ben had sworn that Siler gave this key to Fry. Wilson stated that he did not swear that, but the evidence he gave was that there was but one package he saw Siler bring there, and that was examined by the guard; and that was given to Fry, and there was no key in it. Siler then said to Ben, that is the truth, and I want no other but the truth. I want you to swear nothing but the truth against me. I am a young man, and if I go to the Penitentiary I may out-live my punishment; I have a good six shooter, and I'll have my day afterwards; did not say a word about Ku-Klux or his friends. Witness thought he asked witness, Wilson, directly himself if he swore before the grand jury that Siler handed Fry a key, and he positively answered that he did not.

On the cross examination witness stated that Siler has been trying to get him to get Ben Wilson to leave; did not offer any money, but wished witness to tell him that a certain man wanted to hire railroad hands. Witness replied that he didn't think it prudent to do so, but advised him to get some one else. Siler said that he was afraid Ben Wilson would swear lies against him, but if he would swear the truth he wanted him to stay.

John Ashworth testified that he would not believe the witness, Ben. Wilson.

W. D. Barbor testified to being present at a conversation between Ben. Wilson and W. D. Cook, in which Wilson said to Cook that the key was in the jail before he (Cook) came in.

Thomas Spencer was introduced and certified to the correctness of the report of the evidence in the preliminary examination, taken down by himself, as to the three witnesses, Harris, Cline and Wilson, certain portions of which had been read over to them on the final trial, and its correctness disputed by them. After discussion, that portion of the testimony was admitted.

J. Henly Smith testified to a conversation between himself and Sheriff Harris soon after the escape.

D. S Harris was re-introduced by the defense and peremptorily refused to testify, saying that he preferred to take the jail first, unless he could be better protected than he had been.

The Judge, before committing him for contempt, admonished him that if he persisted in his refusal, the imprisonment would continue while the contempt lasted. After reflection, the witness testified that his evidence was not read over to him on the preliminary examination. Don't know that I ever connected Siler with the key; said that there was a bundle; never said that there was a key in it; my evidence does not say it.

J. O. Harris, Sheriff, testified as to a conversation with one Watson as to Siler's owning up to it; if he used any such language attributed to him, it was based on information from others and not from his own knowledge.

A. R. Watson testified to a conversation with Sheriff Harris. Harris said that Siler was owning it all up. Have no recollection of bailiff or guard being mentioned in said conversation.

J. D. Collins testified to a conversation between Sheriff Harris and Captain Biggers. Biggers asked Harris how it was that he had said that Siler had confessed that he had furnished a key to the prisoners, and Siler had denied it. Harris said in reply that he had told some one laughingly about it, but didn't think he was such a d—d fool as to publish it. Biggers then asked why he didn't correct it. He replied, "the more you stirred it, the worse it stunk"

Captain Biggers corroborates the testimony of Collins.

The defense announced closed for the present.

Eleven witnesses were then sworn for the State in rebuttal.

Rough Rice testified as to the character of witness, D. S. Harris; that he would believe him on oath.

Fifty five witnesses had been examined up to last night.

Evidence will be resumed this morning.

SECOND
GRAND GIFT CONCERT
IN AID OF THE
PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY,
AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

BY authority in the act of the Legislature incorporating the PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, the Trustees will give their

Second Grand Gift Concert

In the great hall of the Public Library Building, in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday, September 28, '72.

This magnificent hall, known as Weisiger Hall, is the largest, most centrally located and best arranged for large and fashionable audiences of any in Louisville, and fitted up in superb style. The building has a front of 158 feet on Fourth street by a depth of 200 feet, four stories in height, and was recently purchased for the Public Library at a cost of $210,000. Three large rooms are now fitted up for the library, and contain about 20,000 volumes and a museum of 100,000 specimens, now open and free to the gratuitous use and enjoyment of all citizens of every State in the Union. It is the purpose of the Trustees, by the GRAND GIFT CONCERT now announced, to raise the money with which to pay the balance of the purchase money due upon the Public Library Building, to enlarge the library, and to so endow the institution as to make it self-sustaining and forever beyond the necessity of calling upon any individual who uses the books for the contribution of a single cent toward its support.

100,000 TICKETS OF ADMISSION

will be issued at $10 each; half tickets $5; quarter tickets $250; 11 whole tickets for $100; 28 for $255; 56 for $500: 113 for $1,000; 285 for $2,500; 575 for $5,000. No discount on less than $100 worth of tickets at a time.

Tickets will be sent, when requested, by registered letter. The money for them may be sent by Adams' Express Co. and its connections, P. O. money order, registered letter, or bank draft.

The holder of each ticket, or fraction of a ticket (a half or a quarter) is entitled to admission to the concert and to the gift awarded to it. During the concert the sum of $500,000 in Currency

will be given the holders of tickets by distribution by lot of ONE THOUSAND GIFTS, as follows:

Total, 1,000 Gifts, all Cash..$500,000

This Concert, like the first of the 16th of December last (which was so decidedly successful, and at which the first grand gift was drawn by and paid to Mr. John R. Durff, of Memphis, Tenn.,) is for the benefit of the

Public Library of Kentucky

The Farmers' and Drovers' Bank is Treasurer, and the corporators and supervisors are all representative men, and are among the most respectable and distinguished citizens of the State.

Should any ticket be left unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be destroyed, and the one thousand gifts offered will all be drawn and paid, but diminished in value in proportion to the per centage of unsold tickets. For instance, if only three-fourths of the tickets are sold, the capital gift will be reduced to $15,000, and all the others in proportion.

The Hon. Thos. E. Bramlette, late Governor of Kentucky, has consented to represent the Trustees in the management of this second Grand Gift Concert, and he will personally see that the money from the sale of Tickets is deposited with the Treasurer, that the drawing is fairly conducted, and the gifts justly awarded and promptly paid.

The drawing will take place in public, in full view of the audience, and under the immediate supervision and direction of the officers and Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky, and the following named eminent and distinguished citizens, who have consented to be present and see that all is fairly done.

Hon. M. B. HARDIN, Judge Court Appeals, Ky.

New Georgia Bonds for Sale.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE,
ATLANTA, GA., April 6th, 1872.

The 7 per cent. State bonds, authorized by an Act approved January 18th, 1872, and issued for the purpose of exchange or redemption of old State bonds of Georgia maturing this year, are now ready for disposal according to the provisions of the bill.

Quite a number have already been sold to Georgians at 90 cents, and an opportunity for a few weeks is offered to obtain them at the State Treasury office at the above price, or they will be exchanged for the old bonds falling due, rating the old bonds at par and the new bonds at 90 cents, the State paying a difference of 10 per cent. in cash.

These new bonds are desirable on several accounts
1. They are issued in strict accordance with law.
2. No more are issued than barely enough to take up the old bonds maturing.
3. They are Redemption bonds, which are rated on the stock market as the very best class of securities.
4. The coupon interest will be paid promptly semi-annually, either in New York or the State Treasury.
5. They are exempt from State taxation.

Orders for purchase, or bonds for exchange can be sent to the State Treasurer in Atlanta, and will receive prompt attention.

There are strong reasons, for these new bonds being at par in a short time, and it is hoped Georgians will continue to show their appreciation, as has the highest Judicial officer of the State, by purchasing twenty-five thousand dollars for himself.

By the advice and approval of the Governor.
N. L. ANGIER,
State Treasurer.

For the Constitution.
WINTER WINDS.

O, cold complaining winter winds
That sweep the frozen lea!
Ye were more kind to summer's dead,
Than fate has been to me;

For when ye gathered in their paths,
At close of gala day,
With hands that seized their light, and bloom,
Ye bore their breath away.

Then, they with sunny hours had filled
Their lives' "allotted span,"
And do but moulder in their rest,
By nature's common plan.

But ere I yet had reached the time
Of my mid-summer noon,
I backward saw my joys, swift sprung,
All withered full as soon.

And life, to me, is like a year
In some strange fated clime
On whose young June days fell the gloom,
And frost of winter time;

A frost that still must nip, and chill
Until the year be done—
A gloom that will not lift again
Beneath a summer sun.

And now, the fairest thing I see,
Throughout the blighted day,
Is a white stone with a name and date
That marks a finished way.

And that which holds, that I fly not
To meet the vision fond,
Is dream I've had, of two strange lands
Which lie that stone beyond.

And so I hold my painful life
Within my fevered hands,
And slowly drag my weary feet
To where that stone gate stands.

Atlanta, 1872. L. A. W. S.

Nominations for the Presidency.

The number of nominations for President are already beginning to be bewildering. Thus far we have the following, and several national conventions are yet to be heard from:

Labor Reform—For President, David Davis, of Illinois; for Vice-President, Joel Parker, of New Jersey.

Temperance—For President, Jas. Black, of Pennsylvania; for Vice President, John Russell, of Michigan.

Woman Suffrage—For President, Victoria C. Woodhull, New York; for Vice President, Frederick Douglass, of Washington.

Liberal Republicans—For President, Horace Greeley, of New York; for Vice President, B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri.

Anti-Secret Societies—For President, Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts; for Vice-President, Charles F. Howard, of Illinois.

Workingmen—For President, U. S. Grant, of Illinois; for Vice-President, Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts.

Political Items.

Private advices from well informed politicians in Iowa state that the Democratic Convention of that State, which will meet on the 11th of June next, will positively indorse the Cincinnati nominations, and send Greeley delegates to Baltimore.

Advices from Florida represent that at a caucus of Conservative members of the Legislature the subject of the Cincinnati nominations was discussed, and the unanimous judgment of the members present was for acquiescence in these nominations.

Frank Blair does not hesitate to deny that he had anything to do with Greeley's nomination at Cincinnati, or that he was a party to any intrigue whereby the result was brought about. He says it was Greeley's popularity that nominated him, and that the same thing will elect him.

Briefs.

I've got the dead wood on you, old fellow, as the undertaker said, screwing down the coffin lid.

Practice does not always make perfect. Curran, when told by his physician that he seemed to cough with more difficulty, replied: That is odd enough, for I have been practicing all night.

A young lady at an evening party found it appropos to use the expression "Jordan is a hard road to travel," but thinking that too vulgar, submitted the following: "Perambulating progression in pedestrian excursion along the far-famed thoroughfare of fortune, cast up by the banks of the sparkling river of Palestine is attended with a heterogeneous conglomeration of unforeseen difficulties."

Manufactures.

Mr. W. E. Boynton, of Meridian, Conn., has invented a lightning printing press, of comparatively low price, which he claims will print 12,000 impressions an hour.

The Japanese manufacture a paper which is water-proof, of which garments, handkerchiefs, hats, umbrellas, and purses are made; also paper warranted to wash and of sufficient strength and pliability for any use.

A patent has been taken out for an invention by which it is claimed glass can be used as a building material for house fronts, floors, or pavements, superior to marble in durability and economy. It can be made plain or variegated, and its colors are indestructible.

☞ During a class meeting held several years since by the Methodist brethren of a Southern village, Brother Jones went among the colored portion of the congregation. Finding there an old man notorious for his endeavors to serve God on the Sabbath and Satan the rest of the week, he said:

"Well, brother Dick, I'm glad to see you here. Haven't stole any turkeys since I saw you last?"

"No, no, brudder Jones, no turkeys."

"Nor any chickens, brother Dick?"

"No, no, brudder Jones, no chickens."

"Thank the Lord, brother Dick! That is doing well, my brother," said brother Jones, leaving brother Dick, who immediately relieved his over-burdened conscience by saying to a near neighbor, with an immense sigh of relief:

"Ef he'd said ducks he'd had me!"

A Debt that Georgia Owes.—A few years since, Hon. Charles J. Jenkins was removed by the bayonets of the United States, from the official position of Governor, to which he had been elected by the suffrages of the people of the "Empire State of the South." It was a flagrant act of usurpation and oppression, and was in perfect accord with the infamous scheme of reconstruction. Governor Jenkins, amid the trials that surrounded him, stood "the noblest Roman of them all," and to-day, when his disabilities are removed (if he ever had any) he ought to be remembered by the people whose honor, integrity and sovereignty he defended until, by the force of bayonets, he was displaced by General Meade.—Selma Times.

Jayhawkers.—An article by Judge Hannay, in the Kansas Magazine, gives the origin of the word "Jayhawkers," as used in Kansas history. In 1856, an individual named Pat Devlin was seen entering the village of Ossawotomie, in Miami county. He was riding a mule, and loaded with no inconsiderable amount of plunder. "You look as if you had been out on an excursion," said some one to him. "Yes," said Pat, "I have been out jayhawking." Pat then explained that the jayhawker was a bird in Ireland which warned its prey before devouring it. From this little incident sprang the use of the word.

Quick Work.—On Tuesday night last, at the Rink, we "locked our form up" on a pair of roller skates, "laid our case" before a friend who proffered to "roll" for us until the "first impression" was made. Considering this a "fat take," we rolled forth, but were soon brought to grief by having our "form pied." "Black and blue" were the colors used in getting out the "first edition," and as there was a "heavy run" on the first, we will issue the second as soon as damages are repaired.—Cuthbert Appeal.

Mechanics.—They are the palace builders of the world; not a stick is hewn, not a stone is sharpened in all the lordly dwellings of the rich, that does not owe its beauty and fitness to the skill of the mechanic. The towering spires that raise giddy heads among the clouds depend upon the mechanic's art for their strength and symmetry. Not an edifice for devotion, or business, or comfort, but bears the impress of their hands. How exalted is their avocation, how sublime their calling!

☞ Edmund Burke declared that "government is an institution created by human wisdom to protect human weakness and provide for human wants." He added: "On the whole, that is the best which shields its subjects most, and costs them least."

Reading Notices.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will not raise the dead, but it will benefit and cure the living. For all severe Coughs, Throat and Bronchial diseases it has never been equaled. jun5-deod1&w1t.

Bachelors' Hair Dye.—This superb Hair Dye is the best in the world—perfectly harmless, reliable and instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous tints or disagreeable odor. The genuine Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye produces immediately a splendid black or natural brown, leaves the hair clean, soft, beautiful; does not contain a particle of lead or any injurious compound. Sold by all druggists. Factory, 16 Bond Street, oct2—d1y New York.

The cause of Temperance finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivalled remedy. may14-d1m.

Talk at the Toilet.—Every lady's maid knows that the bewitching beings who pave their triumphant way with conquered hearts, regard a splendid head of hair as the most effective of all womanly fascinations. They believe, and they are right, that they can lasso as many beaux with the luxuriant ringlets and glossy braids as they can "kill at sight" with their beaming eyes. Hence in their "toilet talk" among themselves and with their attendants, the merits of preparations for the hair are freeley canvassed, and the latest result of this discussion seems to be the almost universal adoption of Lyon's Kathairon as an article better adapted to promote the growth and beauty of the "Chief Glory of Woman" than any other at present before the world. They say that without irritating the skin of the head it eradicates dandruff, and that it penetrates below the surface to the roots of the hair, endowing them with new life and vigor. june5-deod1w&w1t

A Dead Delusion.—The theory that human beings whose strength has been exhausted by pain and sickness can be restored by depleting medicines and water gruel, if not absolutely a dead delusion, is in the last agonies of dissolution. At length it is understood that strength cannot be purged into a debilitated frame, though life may easily be purged out of it, and that it is about as wise to withhold a healthful stimulant from the weak, in the expectation that they will rally without one, as it would be to deprive a lamp of oil and expect it to burn the brighter for it.

The immense and uniform success which has attended the use of that wonderful combination of a pure stimulant with the finest medicinal herbs, known as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has largely assisted in dispelling the absurd chimera. Frantic attempts are made to revive it, but in vain. When the sick feel that their strength is departing, and that unless invigorated they must utterly break down, it is in vain to tender them feculent slops in the place of genuine restoratives. They may be imposed upon in this way once, but the imposition cannot be repeated. They desire to be refreshed, comforted, braced up, and decline to be griped a second time.

Under the operation of the Bitters, on the other hand, all the processes necessary to physical restoration go on simultaneously. The system is stimulated and toned, the bowels regulated, the appetite cultivated, the nerves composed and the condition of the blood improved at one and the same time by a single medicine. Common sense tells us that such a preparation must be invaluable. june5-deod1w&w1t.

BROWN'S HOTEL,

MACON, GEORGIA.

If long experience and a thorough knowledge of the business in all its diversified branches are essential to the keeping that which the public has long heard of but seldom seen,

A GOOD HOTEL,

The undersigned flatter themselves that they are fully competent to discharge their obligations to their patrons. But they are not only experienced in hotel keeping—they modestly would claim to have

THE BEST ARRANGED AND MOST COMPLETELY AND EXPENSIVELY FURNISHED

House throughout, in the State, which is located exactly where everybody would have it situated, immediately in Front and Adjacent to the Passenger Depot, where travelers can enjoy the most sleep and less liabilities to be left by the perplexingly constant departure of the trains.

To all these important advantages is added a table that is well supplied with the best and choicest dishes the city and country can afford; nor would they omit to mention that their servants, trained to the business, have never been surpassed for politeness and attention to guests.

For the truth of these statements, we refer the public to our patrons who reside in every State in the Union.

Every drop of the SASPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases. Eruptions, Fevers, Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent powers to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

Price $1 Per Bottle.

UNITED STATES HOTEL,
Cor. Fulton, Water and Pearl Sts,
NEW YORK,

This well known, favorite hotel, has recently been renovated, remodeled and furnished new and elegantly throughout. It is kept on the European plan, and has ample accommodations for four hundred guests.

The location is more accessible to all parts of New York and Brooklyn than any other house in the city. The Broadway Stages pass the hotel every three minutes, besides various lines of Street Cars, one of which intersects every other route in New York.

It being but two blocks from Fulton Ferry, makes it convenient for those wishing to visit the "City of Churches," as from this ferry diverges all the principal railroad routes in the city of Brooklyn.

is a powerful Tonic, especially adapted for use in the Spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

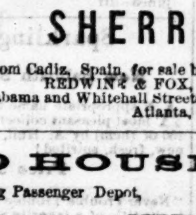

It is a South American plant, which according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, DERANGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, TUMORS, DROPSY, POVERTY OF THE BLOOD, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES, UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

It is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutricious food, taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and, by its powerful Tonic and restoring effect, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.
